Giving Circle Funds

Giving Circles allow donors to give with others, pool resources, and decide as a group which organization(s) will receive grants.

20/20 Sisters of Vision

Christian women empowering women and children in local and global communities to improve their quality of life in areas such as health, education, economic development, and spirituality.

A Legacy of Tradition (ALOT)

Continues the legacy of giving by bridging the societal gaps faced by African American males through education, collective giving, and community responsibility.

The Art of Giving (TAG)

Leverages the power of collective philanthropy as it works to connect women in meaningful and purposeful ways, for the benefit of women and families in the Triangle region.

The Beehive Collective

Raleigh young professionals organizing fun projects and pooling their collective talents to raise meaningful amounts of money to support causes they care about.

A Divine Collective

A Divine Collective's mission is to be a contributing solution for young parents requiring financial assistance toward vocational certifications and community college or university degrees.

Heritage Quilters

Women of Warrenton promoting the knowledge of the art of quilt making and preserving the history and lore of fabric art.

Next Generation of African American Philanthropists (NGAAP)

Promotes collective giving of time, talent, and treasure to improve the quality of life for African Americans in North Carolina's Triangle region.

Community Leadership Funds

Triangle Community Foundation is grateful for donors over the past four decades who have contributed to the funds below. Gifts to these Community Leadership Funds make it possible for the Foundation to work toward its vision for the Triangle region to be a place where everyone can thrive.

Invest in the Triangle

Funds that address the most pressing needs, inspire philanthropy, and develop a strong nonprofit sector in the Triangle region.

- Fund for the Triangle supports current needs in our impact areas: the arts, community development, environmental conservation, and youth literacy.
- Permanent Fund for the Triangle addresses evolving community needs – today and for generations to come.
- Send A Kid To Camp Fund provides camp tuition assistance for local children in need, in an effort to prevent summer learning loss.
- Shannon E. St. John Philanthropy Endowment Fund invests in cutting-edge philanthropic initiatives and trains future philanthropic leaders.

Special Initiatives

- Donor Impact Group: Women THRIVE benefits women and girls in the Triangle.
- Triangle Capacity-Building Network is comprised of local funders and champions organizations that are ready to work on their internal processes, procedures, plan, and people in order to thrive in the communities they serve.
- Sudden and Urgent Needs Fund provides grants of up to $2,000 to assist nonprofit organizations in the Triangle experiencing an unbudgeted, unforeseen, and time-sensitive crisis that significantly interferes with their ability to provide critical services or presents an imminent threat to the organization's continued operations.
- Disaster Relief Fund supports local disaster relief and recovery efforts when needed.

Support Triangle Community Foundation

Funds that help Triangle Community Foundation build community knowledge, encourage great ideas, and convene partners from the public, private and nonprofit sectors to move important efforts forward.

- Triangle Community Foundation Endowment Fund ensures that the Foundation will be a strong and sustainable philanthropic leader in the Triangle today and for generations to come.
- Triangle Community Foundation Operating Fund provides resources for the Foundation to carry out its core work of investing in the region and inspiring philanthropy.

TCF Real Estate Foundation

The mission of the TCF Real Estate Foundation, which is a supporting organization of the Foundation, is to receive, manage and liquidate gifts of real estate, ultimately pouring sales proceeds into one or more of the Foundation's charitable funds created by the donor. Simplifying gifts of real estate and assuming the administrative burden of such gifts for the Foundation, TCF Real Estate Foundation currently holds real estate assets totaling approximately $2.6 million.
