LaToya King Joins Triangle Community Foundation as First Chief Operations Officer

Research Triangle Park, NC: Triangle Community Foundation is pleased to share that LaToya King has joined the Foundation as Chief Operations Officer (COO). The creation of the position is in recognition of the growth of the Foundation as well as the community, which needs our support more than ever.

"I am beyond excited to welcome LaToya to our team," said Lori O'Keefe, President & CEO. "Day-to-day operations have become more complex as a result of explosive growth in the Triangle as well as the pandemic. The team and I look forward to her bringing strategic perspective and structures that will help us continue to grow."

LaToya comes to the Foundation from JusticeMatters, a nonprofit organization located in Durham addressing the roots and repercussions of human trafficking, where she also served as COO. Her career spans over 20 years working with a variety of organizations in operations, nonprofit management, finance, and community development, including at Jobs for Life, the Make it Right Foundation, Cherokee Investment Partners, Fannie Mae Foundation, and Bank of America. LaToya received a BBA degree in accounting from Howard University and an MBA from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Kenan-Flagler Business School.

"I am thrilled and honored to join Triangle Community Foundation's team," said LaToya. "The Foundation is building a legacy based on a strategy that is collaborative, innovative, and equitable. It is a vision for all of the Triangle to thrive and flourish. I look forward to rolling up my sleeves and helping to build upon this rich legacy."

About Triangle Community Foundation | Founded in 1983, Triangle Community Foundation works to build a brighter future for everyone in the Triangle region of North Carolina. By working with dedicated donors and strong nonprofits, the Foundation is able to guide gifts in strategic ways to fill in gaps, reduce inequities, and solve the region's most pressing challenges.
