

George H. Hitchings Legacy Society

Then, Now and Tomorrow

Dr. George H. Hitchings was a scientist and a visionary. His medical research on life-saving medicines won the 1988 Nobel Prize for Medicine. But “getting Triangle Community Foundation off the ground” was, in his mind and in his own words, the achievement Dr. Hitchings was most proud of.

The Foundation is a permanently enduring engine of philanthropy. Our vision is a vibrant and thriving Triangle community; our passion is the brokering of solutions for local opportunities and needs. We listen, research, think and work collaboratively. We connect people, causes and resources - cultivate human, social and financial capital - and foster learning, communication and cooperation.

The Foundation’s ability to enhance communities here in the Triangle and beyond multiplies through your generosity and vision - by harnessing the power of your legacy. The George H. Hitchings Legacy Society honors individuals who include the Foundation in their estate plans and by their example inspire other legacies of generosity, compassion, gratitude and vision.
